

Residential Aged Care Educational Videos for Staff Providing End of Life Care

ELDAC is a free online resource for aged care workers and health professionals caring for older people at the end of life. The free educational video series will help your staff to improve their end of life care skills by learning from the experiences of palliative care experts and clinicians.

The 6 modules in the video series compliment the resources available in the ELDAC Residential Aged Care (RAC) Toolkit and include:

